Q5. Longest Common Prefix

Approach:

→ In an array of strings, the longest common prefix can not be longer than the shortest string in the array.

→ Hence we first iterate to find the length of the shortest string

→ Then, we iterate a second time to check whether for the length of the shortest string, how many characters are same consequently for all the strinfs, until the first unequal character (if) is found.